OUR MEETING SPACES

Your choice of meeting venue is as important as the content of your seminar or exhibition. This is because it's vitally important that your delegates feel welcome and comfortable from the moment they arrive, to the moment they leave. If they have a positive frame of mind throughout, they'll gain so much more from the event. So, if you're looking for high quality, easily-accessible business and conference facilities in the Lake District; we invite you to get in touch and discuss your needs and requirements with our friendly and welcoming team. We are well equipped and can meet your requirements, whatever they are. Whether you're looking for a small conference facility or an exhibition venue for up to 200 invitees, we can fulfill your specifications as well as your expectations.
